“I think of myself as a leader who inspires and motivates others to do what I’ve done.”

Leadership and Community Service: Luke has played high school basketball and soccer as well as been a part of the cross country team and various leadership groups including Me to We and Condor Connections. In addition to high school sports, Luke has played on PGYSA soccer teams, and has helped referee and coach.

Value of School Athletics: School athletics have helped Luke build important relationships and lead within a team environment. Participating in sports has allowed him to promote a positive atmosphere within his school community.

Future Plans: Luke plans to play CIS Soccer for UNBC next year and eventually attend U of A or UVIC to further pursue his studies in Human Kinetics and Physical Activity.
