

BCSS Indigenous Student-Athlete Scholarship Recipients

The BCSS Indigenous Student-Athlete Scholarship is awarded in recognition and support of outstanding Indigenous student-athletes. BCSS selects the top male and female applicants, who have demonstrated exceptional leadership and volunteerism, and will be attending an accredited post-secondary institution next year. Congratulations to these two phenomenal student-athletes! BCSS wishes them the best of luck with all their future endeavours. Thank you for your contributions to school sports

Jayden Kenyon

Brookwood

Sports: Basketball

Athletic Accolades: 2x Brookwood Basketball Athletic Award Winner, Provincial 2nd Team All Star, Eastern Valley All Star, 2x Tournament All Star, 3x Team Captain

Academic Accolades: Chemistry Hard Hat Award, Honour Roll

Jayden is a student-athlete who demonstrates grit everyday. He understands the importance of hard work and is always willing to make sacrifices to improve. When his family was dealing with serious medical issues, Jayden never wavered in his dedication to his team. He continued to lead them through his actions and encouragement. He prides himself on building lasting connections through sport. Jayden also volunteers as a coach for elementary school kids, is a peer mentor at school, and a volunteer firefighter, helping with their numerous charitable events.

Sports: Volleyball, Basketball, Soccer

Athletic Accolades: Volleyball MVP, Duchess Park Top Female Athlete, Provincial 1st Team All Star, 2x Zone All Star, Zone's Most Valuable Defensive Player, Volleyball Team Captain

Academic Accolades: 4.0 GPA

Magdalena leads with determination in every aspect of her life. She is enthusiastic and positive, while also embracing empathy in competitive situations. She has had great successes through sport but remains humble, always uplifting her teammates. She embodies kindness on the floor. The commitment she has to her teams has inspired both students and staff. Magdalena also helps younger athletes by volunteering as a coach and referee.

Magdalena Malfair

Duchess Park