

2022 - 2023

BCSS Indigenous Student-Athlete Scholarship Recipients

The BCSS Indigenous Student-Athlete Scholarship is awarded in recognition and support of outstanding Indigenous student-athletes. BCSS selects the top male and female applicants, who have demonstrated exceptional leadership and volunteerism, and will be attending an accredited post-secondary institution next year.

Congratulations to these two phenomenal student-athletes! BCSS wishes them the best of luck with all their future endeavors.

Thank you for your contributions to school sports.

Aiden Chabot
Pitt Meadows
Secondary

Sports: Golf

Athletic Accolades: Co-leader of the school ball hockey club, Active Living student aide, 2022 District and Provincial Ball Hockey Champion, representing Canada at the Ball Hockey Worlds.

Academic Accolades: Honour Roll in grades 8 to 12, 4.0 GPA.

Aiden, of Métis Nation, is a respected leader on both his school and club sports teams. His dedication to achieving excellence, his ability to collaborate, and his desire to help others have made him an excellent role model for his peers. Aiden serves within his athletic clubs, volunteering as a coach for younger athletes and an event coordinator at tournaments. Outside of athletics, Aiden volunteers at the Salvation Army and the local Food Bank. He is constantly striving to improve his community and the lives of its citizens. He is also part of a campaign that collected donations and raised awareness for juvenile cancer research. Aiden credits his passion, and his desire to be a lifelong learner, as keys to his success.

Cassidy, of Métis Nation, is a capable student-leader who possesses incredible initiative. She is heavily involved at her school, where she is the acting president of the student council. Her role requires her to organize and manage dances, spirit weeks, and charitable campaigns such as Relay for Life, writing Christmas letters to veterans, and more. In her community, she has volunteered for the public library, coached at the youth hockey and soccer clubs, and recently become a Jr. firefighter. Cassidy's work ethic and commitment to accomplishing her goals set her apart from her peers, contributing to her accomplishments.
