

2016-2017 Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship Recipients

BC School Sports wishes to congratulate the 6 badminton scholarship recipients.

The Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship rewards excellence in both scholastic and athletic pursuits. The scholarship recipients are student-athletes who have balanced their achievements as badminton athletes with significant success as leaders and contributors to their community.

Jodi Fei

Crofton House

Jodi is a dedicated student-athlete who has participated in her school's varsity badminton program as more than just a member. On top of being the team captain, Jodi believes in giving back to her school community and wants to support the young-student athletes by currently helping them to achieve their goals. She is working towards a Level 1 Umpire Certification and frequently attends tournaments as an Official and Scorekeeper. Jodi's dedication to badminton and her willingness to making a difference in her school community has made her an inspiring leader.

David Kim

Fraser Heights

David is a committed student-athlete who has won Fraser Valley Individual Championship Titles in both Boys and Mixed Doubles. He has also recently won Silver in U-19 Boys Doubles at Provincials and is competing in the upcoming Badminton Nationals. Off of the competitive court, David has shared his love for Badminton by coaching his school's grade eight team as well as at-risk youth within his community. David's strong work ethic and selflessness makes him a strong leader and inspires those around him.

2016-2017 Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship Recipients

BC School Sports wishes to congratulate the 6 badminton scholarship recipients.

The Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship rewards excellence in both scholastic and athletic pursuits. The scholarship recipients are student-athletes who have balanced their achievements as badminton athletes with significant success as leaders and contributors to their community.

Josie Setiawan

Riverside Secondary

Josie is a respected student-athlete who has participated in her school's badminton program for the past three years. She has a strong passion to give back to her community and this is evidenced by her involvement with badminton tournaments, a special needs children physiotherapy program, her school's Me to We Club, and her community arts centre, library, and care home. She is a role model to those she works with, as well as her peers. Her dedication to her community will continue to positively impact those around her.

Dev Aurora

Fraser Heights

Dev is an inspiring student-athlete who has participated in his school's badminton program for the past two years. He strongly believes that community service has provided him with many valuable life skills and leadership skills, and he is the co-president of his school's Heart and Stroke Club. In addition, he wants to complete his NCCP Certification so that he can share his love for badminton with as many people as he can. Dev's positive attitude and willingness to give back has made him a respectable individual.

2016-2017 Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship Recipients

BC School Sports wishes to congratulate the 6 badminton scholarship recipients.

The Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship rewards excellence in both scholastic and athletic pursuits. The scholarship recipients are student-athletes who have balanced their achievements as badminton athletes with significant success as leaders and contributors to their community.

Joyce Leung

Killarney Secondary

Joyce is a hard-working student-athlete who has participated in her school's badminton program for three years. On top of her dedication to the sport, she spends countless hours volunteering within her community in numerous programs involving sports, reading, tutoring, and multicultural events. Her ability to manage and organize her time across her high performance sport training and her dedication to the community makes her an incredible role-model.

Carlson Ng

Mt. Douglas

Carlson is an admirable student-athlete who has participated in his school's badminton program for the past three years, and he is a provincially competitive U19 player. He shows his dedication to the sport of badminton by volunteering as an assistant coach and he wants to share the valuable life lessons that he has learned through badminton with children. Carlson's willingness and dedication to making a difference will continue to create positive change in his community and those around him.