

2019-2020

Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship

The Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship rewards excellence in both scholastic and athletic pursuits. The successful applicants will be student-athletes who have balanced their achievements as badminton athletes with significant success as leaders and contributors to their community.

6x $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to the most worthy candidates.

Each recipient receives

$1,000 Scholarship to an accredited Post-Secondary Institution

BC School Sports wishes to congratulate the six scholarship recipients.
We wish them the best of luck in their post-secondary endeavours.

Sheldon Xu

Burnaby South Secondary School

Sheldon Xu has been described as a student-athlete with great skill, respect, and great leadership qualities. Sheldon has achieved much in the athletic world, earning Double and Triple Finalist at the provincial level, and most noteworthy, was named U19 National Male Singles Top Athlete. Sheldon also maintained a GPA of 4.0 for his final two years of his time at Burnaby South Secondary School. Sheldon also has interests in giving back to his school through programs such as LEO (Leadership, Experience, Opportunity) Club, and was President of the HOPE Youth Society.

Amy Wong

Richmond Secondary School

Amy Wong is an intelligent and diverse young woman excelling in aspects of sport, school, and community engagement. She is the captain of her school's Senior Badminton Team, as well as achieving subject excellence in 6 of her courses in Grade 11 and maintain a 97% average in her studies. Amy has also earned herself the Major Service Award, where she has volunteered more than 90 hours of her time at numerous community centres and youth foundations, proving to be a positive impact to her community.

Brian Chen

Eric Hamber Secondary School

Brian Chen is a dedicated badminton player, coach, employee and captain who has shown great skill in achieving excellence in his sport, being named the Seasons Most Valuable Player, as well as starting his own initiatives in his school and his community. Brian has founded the Physics Olympics Club, to provide the framework, training and support to those who want to compete in the annual Physics Olympics competition. Brian is also the Founder and CEO of the non-profit organization, GrocerCheck, a web application to help provide people with data about grocery stores to help consumers follow social distancing guidelines during COVID-19.

Heidi Tsui

Burnaby Mountain Secondary School

Heidi Tsui is dedicated to her sport of badminton, to her academic career, and to extra-curricular activities outside the class room. She has demonstrated great leaps in her sport career by earning the Most Improved Player twice, as well as earning 2 silver medals in multiple "A" series Singles and Doubles championships. She also excels in academia, earning Honour Roll with Distinction and the Work Ethic Award in both her Grade 11 and Grade 12 year. She is also very present in clubs in and outside of her school. Heidi is a member of the Youth in Action Club, Peer Tutoring Program, Shuttlesport Badminton Academy, and Earthwise Club.

Daniel Yang

Fraser Heights Secondary

Daniel Yang is a highly decorated badminton player with 37 medals in various badminton tournaments, while maintaining his status on the First Class Honour Roll. Daniel was actually selected to be a part of the Senior Provincial team in only the 8th Grade! Daniel also says that he spends the majority of his time coaching badminton, not only his own team, but clubs as well. He dedicates numerous hours a week ensuring that the younger players in his community are able to thrive in the sports as well as he does.

Minjin Kim

Burnaby South Secondary School

Minjin Kim is an exemplary student-athlete, maintaining a 4.0 GPA for the entirety of her high school career and receiving multiple statuses of Excellence in her classes. Outside of the classroom she is a very skilled badminton player, playing for the school as well as clubs outside of school. Not only does she play, but she has provided leadership and coaching for the students of Burnaby Metro Club Eagles for the past 3 years. Her leadership skills also led her to be the Vice-President for both the Burnaby South Interact Club and the Student Government for her school.