

2018-2019

The Bert & Greta Quartermaine Badminton Scholarship rewards excellence in both scholastic and athletic pursuits. The scholarship recipients are student-athletes who have balanced their achievements as badminton athletes with significant success as leaders and contributors to their community.

Each recipient receives

$1,000 Scholarship to an accredited Post-Secondary Institution

BC School Sports wishes to congratulate the six badminton scholarship recipients.

Heejung Chung

Fraser Heights Secondary School

Heejung is the co-captain of her senior badminton team that has won the last 5 Provincial Championships and 6 of the last 7. With her success, Heejung has spent the last 3 years coaching the Grade 8 badminton team at the school to participate in the school's culture of giving back by volunteer coaching. This experience has benefitted her development. Elsewhere, you can find Heejung participating in many school clubs including LEO Club, Debate Club, Model United Nations Club, Mock Trials Club, and Global Issues Club. This is only a portion of the volunteerism and commitment Heejung shows in her community. Heejung continues to inspire on and off the badminton court.

Jasper Mai

Fraser Heights Secondary School

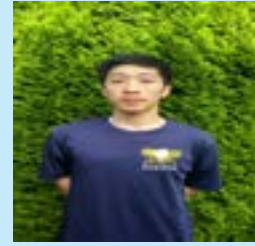

Jasper is an exemplary student-athlete. Badminton is one of the many areas of Jasper's life where he has been very successful. Jasper has also been an integral part of his school's Volleyball and Basketball teams. Outside of the gym, Jasper contributes to his community through being an executive of the LEO Club, the club that in his freshman year inspired him to pursue extra-curricular activities. Jasper is also an executive of both the Debate Club and Model United Nations Club where he enjoys mentoring fellow students. Jasper continues to inspire in his community and has shown an impressive resume highlighted by community involvement and elite badminton performance.

Reven Liu

St. Michael's University School

Reven is a student-athlete who has shows tremendous passion for badminton. Having been a successful member of the school badminton team since Grade 9, Reven has also shown leadership in coaching badminton in his community since his Grade 10 year. Reven's teachers describe him as "hard working", "responsible" and "dedicated". Reven's passion for badminton has helped him to make a difference in his school community and has made him a strong leader.

Josh Li

A.R. MacNeill Secondary School

Josh is a committed student-athlete who through dedication to Badminton has improved at an extraordinary rate since his Grade 8 year. Josh continues to develop as a badminton player while assisting as a coach and mentor in his school's badminton community. Josh can often be found in a gym continuing to put in the work that has made him one of the top 15 doubles players in BC High Schools and the top doubles player at AR MacNeill. Josh's passion for badminton has lifted the sports popularity in his community and his leadership in this community will set the example for those who will follow in his footsteps.

Timothy Ho

Vancouver College

Timothy is an admirable student-athlete. Timothy has been a successful leader on his school badminton teams and has used that leadership to benefit others in his community. Timothy mentors others at his local community centre and his school showing compassion and helping in areas where he too once struggled. Timothy a passionate helper with St. Alban's Community Meal Outreach Program, helping serve meals to the homeless, marginalized, or in financial need in East Vancouver. Timothy's success in badminton and consistent display of going the extra mile has shaped him into a valuable member in his school community.

Annie Zhou

Steveston-London Secondary School

In addition to leading the Steveston London badminton team to 3 consecutive Richmond titles, Annie has shown outstanding leadership in her community. Some of the activities and clubs Annie has assisted with in her community include; Student Council, Shark Club, Food-4Life, Ace Badminton Centre, tutoring, Grade 8 Camp, C-Change youth leadership team, and Interact Club. While her secondary school badminton career has been full of successes, you could argue that Annie's contributions off the court are what make her an exemplary community leader.
