

2019-2020 BC Dairy Association Scholarship Recipients

BC Dairy Association is dedicated to assisting worthy student-athletes in their desire to attend an accredited Canadian University or College by sponsoring this year's BC Dairy Association Scholarship. This scholarship rewards seven student athletes who exemplify school spirit, practice a healthy lifestyle, and engage with their community.

Each recipient receives

$1,000 Scholarship to an accredited Post-Secondary Institution

BC School Sports in partnership with BC Dairy wishes to congratulate the seven scholarship recipients. We wish them the best of luck in their post-secondary endeavours.

Comrie Engbers

Surrey Christian School

Comrie Engbers is a bright young man with interests in many sports, and proving his dedication to his teams by being named captain for both his volleyball team as well as his basketball team in his Grade 12 year. Not only does he excel within the school walls, but outside the school walls as well. Comrie was a part of the LEAD Across Cultures program, which entailed travelling to Korea and Japan for 3 weeks teaching physical education to children ages 9-12, only 12 students from his school were selected for this program.

Nicole Thomas

Fraser Heights Secondary School

Nicole Thomas is a hard-working student athlete with a strong head and good morals. She is a soccer player who helps lead her team with unmatched energy and empowering values. Her academic life is unmatched as well, with being the top academic student in Grade 11, to graduating with Honours with Distinction. She is a female-empowering entrepreneur outside of school as well, starting an innovative recycling initiative with local businesses to help save the planet, while promoting her businesses "all-female" status.

Brandon Bae

J.N. Burnett Secondary School

Brandon Bae is a remarkable student athlete with exceptional leadership qualities, despite having overcome many obstacles early in his high school career. With his main passion lying in volleyball, Brandon has managed to earn himself Senior Volleyball MVP, as well as Honour Roll in both his Grade 11 and Grade 12 years. Not only does he excel in his own endeavours, but he makes it his mission to help others. By fulfilling the role of team captain on his volleyball teams, as well as volunteering his own time to coach younger Bantam teams, Brandon has solidified himself as a proven leader.

Rebecca Cambell

Windsor Secondary School

Rebecca Campbell is a proud multisport athlete, playing at least 3 sports every year from the start of her high school career. Even with the responsibilities and duties that come along with all of these sports, Rebecca has earned a 96% academic average in her Grade 12 year. Outside of school, Rebecca enjoys keeping busy with numerous volunteer opportunities to help her community such as helping residents at care centres, coaching at volleyball youth camps, and even starting her own initiative to collect warm clothing for shelters in her community.

Aidan Milburn

Salmo Secondary School

Aidan Milburn sees sports not only as a way to have fun, but rather as a gateway to a healthy lifestyle. This focus to pursue a healthy lifestyle through sports has helped him learn great lessons of hard work and discipline, so much so that Aidan was granted the opportunity to be Class Valedictorian for his graduating class. Aidan was also the MVP for his basketball team in both his final years, and earned outstanding academic achievements as well, such as Principals List (A average), and Community Citizenship Award both years as well.

Madeline Mittelsteadt

Claremont Secondary School

Madeline Mittelsteadt has shown exceptional determination when it comes to the work she puts in for academia, athletics, as well as extra-curricular pursuits. With numerous achievements, including a National Gold Medal in field hockey and the completion of the Pursuit of Excellence Program, Madeline has continued to thrive in her academic life and earn awards such as the Les Koch Award. Madeline credits her success to the leadership skill that volunteering and sports have taught her over the years.

Taiya Scorey

Royal Bay Secondary School

Taiya Scorey is someone who puts in the extra mile whenever she can. Earning the spot as team captain for her soccer team for Grades 11 and 12, as well as earning Principals Honour Roll each year as well, Taiya excels in both academia, and athletics. Taiya is also a highly devoted member to her school and her community offering nearly 100 hours of her time each year to the Royal Bay Leadership Program planning and organizing countless events within and outside of her school.
