

BC SCHOOL SPORTS FOOTBALL “SUBWAY BOWL” CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES RETURNS TO BC PLACE

600 student athletes from across British Columbia will compete to be crowned AAA Varsity, AA Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Grade 8 provincial champions at BC Place.

For Immediate Release
November 10, 2021

Vancouver, BC – BC Pavilion Corporation (PavCo) and BC School Sports (BCSS) are pleased to announce the BCSS High School Football Championship Series is returning to BC Place for 2021.

As a result of the playoff schedules for both Major League Soccer (MLS) and the Canadian Football League (CFL) recently being largely determined, a number of event dates that were previously held at the stadium have now been released.

BC Place will host the BC School Sports Football Semi-Final games on Saturday, November 27th, followed by the prestigious Subway Bowl Championship Final games on Saturday, December 4th.

“Hosting the B.C. School Sports Football Championship Series as part of PavCo’s community programming at BC Place is a great opportunity for B.C.’s student athletes to compete in a world class sports venue.” said Ken Cretney, President & CEO of PavCo. “BC Place has a proud history of hosting the Subway Bowl for many years. We are very pleased to see this community event return to the stadium for 2021.”

The BCSS Football Championship Series at BC Place will feature more than 600 student athletes from across British Columbia competing in AAA Varsity, AA Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Grade 8 divisions. For full event day schedules, tickets and event information visit: bchighschoolfootball.com

“BC School Sports and high school football have had a robust history with BC Place extending over 3 decades” said Jordan Abney, BCSS Executive Director. “We are so thrilled our student-athletes will once again get the amazing opportunity to compete in the Subway Bowl under the bright lights, and ideal conditions BC Place provides. We thank PavCo for their continued support of high school sport and look forward to providing the student-athletes an amazing experience that will create memories to last a lifetime.
