

TRACK • FIELD INVITATIONAL

Dear Teacher Coaches,

We hope that all of you had a fantastic summer! As the school year starts ramping up and high school track and field teams begin planning for the 2013/2014 season, the Nike High School Grand Prix would like to inform all Canadian high schools of our plans for the 2014 event.

The Nike High School Grand Prix was born to inspire excellence in high school athletes, unite student athletes across the nation, and celebrate the sport of track and field. We would like all 12 provincial and territorial school sport associations to submit one boys school team and one girls school team to represent their province at the 2014 event.

Here is some key information you need to know:

- LOCATION: Toronto, Ontario
- FACILITY: Varsity Stadium, University of Toronto
- ACCOMMODATIONS: Victoria University, University of Toronto Campus

- KEY DATES:
 - November 25, 2013: Teams selected by Provincial/Territorial high school athletic association
 - Week of January 13, 2014: Official Announcement/Press Release of the participating teams
 - Week of January 13, 2014: Information & fundraising kits sent to all participating teams
 - February 2014: Track event and weekend activities information shared with participating teams
 - May 7-11, 2014: Nike High School Grand Prix event weekend
 - Select distant school teams will be required to fly in on Wednesday evening (May 7, 2014)

- COST: $675.00 per participating student athlete & teacher coach from outside Ontario; $400.00 per participating student athlete & teacher coach from Ontario
 - Cost includes: Travel to and from Toronto, 3 nights accommodation, transportation in Toronto, meals, track & field competition, athletic banquet, city tours, and additional Toronto cultural experiences.
